

Application for Swedish residence permit – for self-employed persons

The authority's notes
File number	Initials

You should use this form if you plan to operate as a self-employed person in Sweden.

It is important that your application is complete so that the Migration Board can process it as quickly as possible. Processing of your application will be delayed if the Migration Board requires supplementary information afterwards. Therefore, complete the questionnaire carefully and append the documents listed there.

Most applicants are required to pay a fee when they apply for a residence permit.

More information is available on our website www.migrationsverket.se.
